VOLUNTEER COMMITMENT

1. Volunteer acknowledges, agrees to, and solely accepts the risks and responsibilities related to serving as a volunteer. Thus, to the maximum extent of the law, Peggy Beatrice Foundation, including any of its founders, directors, managers, employees, volunteers, host individuals, families, and partner organizations are not liable for any harm or loss Volunteer may experience or incur, including but not limited to death, personal injury, emotional injury, illness or disease, damage or loss of property.

2. Volunteer irrevocably consents to Peggy Beatrice Foundation's publication and other use – for training, promotion, fundraising and any other purpose consistent with the organization's mission – any and all photographs, interviews, audio/video recordings, and any and all other descriptions and depictions of himself/herself, either singly or with others, taken, conducted, produced or otherwise created during the course of the Projects or otherwise in relation to Volunteer's association with Peggy Beatrice Foundation.

3. Volunteer acknowledges and agrees he/she will not be entitled to receive employment or an offer of employment by Peggy Beatrice Foundation strictly by virtue of participating in volunteer activity with Peggy Beatrice Foundation.

4. The parties to this Volunteer Commitment believe that the Bible commands them to make every effort to live at peace and to resolve disputes with each other in private or within the Church (see Matthew 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 6:1-8). Therefore, the parties agree that any claim or dispute arising from or related to this Volunteer Commitment shall be settled by biblically-based mediation and, if necessary, legally binding arbitration. The arbitration shall be commenced and heard in Los Angeles County, California. Judgment upon an arbitration decision may be entered in any court otherwise having jurisdiction. The parties understand that these methods shall be the sole remedy for any controversy or claim arising out of the Volunteer Commitment and expressly waive their right to file a lawsuit in any civil court against one another for such disputes, except to enforce an arbitration decision.

5. California law shall govern the construction, interpretations, and enforcement of this Commitment. This Commitment supersedes all previous agreements, whether written or oral, express or implied, relating to the above subject matter, and shall not be changed or subject to change orally. For the interpretation or enforcement of the above agreement to mediate and to arbitrate and for the address and resolution of any other matter outside of such alternative dispute resolution, the parties agree the California Superior Court, Los Angeles County shall be the forum with rights of appeal and review as permitted and applicable to such court.
